Imported Evening Dresses---Reduced Imported Carriage Gowns---Reduced Imported Dinner Frocks---Reduced

They came from Paquin, Drecoll, Francis, Bechoff, David & Cie, Templier & Rondeau, Tavernier and other dress wizards of Paris. The materials are lustrous, shimmery, clingy satins, ottoman silks, crepe de chines, crepe meteor and cashmere de soie, chiffon cloths, spangled, jetted and Pompadour fabrics. Lace with Egyptian and Greek motifs, Trimmings tinted with the embroideries of the best. Girdles of the Arab and Hungarian-all these and much more are blended in the beauty of these dresses. They borrow the plumage of the three Louis-reviving interest in the court favorites of the Empire and Directoire.
